

The Nordic Research Network on Special Needs Education in Mathematics (NORSMA) will be held in Oslo 27th–29th of October 2026. NORSMA 12 is a joint conference with the Norwegian network for mathematical difficulties Sammen om oppdraget. We ask you to save the date – more information will come.

The 12th Nordic Conference about students in mathematical difficulties – NORSMA 12

October 27–29, 2026, Oslo, Norway

First Announcement

The conference will take place over three days, one dedicated teachers' day and two for research conference. Feel free to share the announcement with your network and colleagues who are interested in this research field.

